Key terminology

Enrolment

When you enrol in your courses for the semester.

Timetabling

When you select/preference your class times for each of your courses

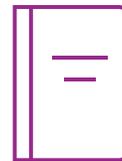

Program

At UQ degrees are called programs (Bachelor of Arts, Master of Psychology)

Course

Courses are the subjects you study in your program (e.g., BIO2010 or ENGG2021)

Unit

Units are the value of individual courses. Most courses have a value of 2 units and a standard study load is 8 units per semester.

Course Coordinator

Each course is designed and planned by a Course Coordinator – they will often be the main lecturer for your course.

Key terminology

Electronic Course Profile (ECP)

Each course has an ECP that contains important information about that course. Always read your ECP!

Compulsory and Elective Courses

Compulsory courses are mandatory for completing your program; electives are courses you can choose.

Major and Minor

A major combines courses in a program focusing on a specific discipline. Minors are similar, but require fewer courses.

Lecture

A lecture is a presentation delivered by an academic. This is where you'll be taught the theory of your course.

Tutorial

Tutorials or 'tutes' are held in a smaller classroom and involve more interaction between students and the tutor.

Contact Hours

The number of hours per week of teaching activities for a course (lectures, tutorials, workshops, etc.)

Important note of international Students

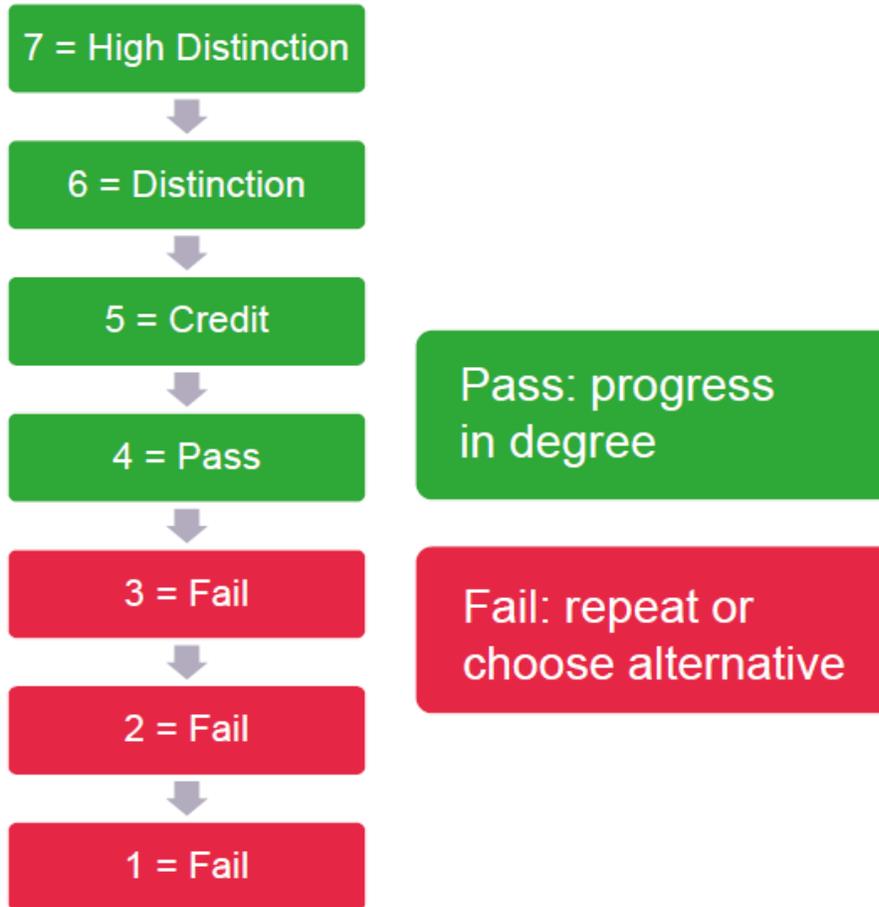

Standard Full-Time study load is 8 units (generally 4 courses) per semester

International students with a student visa have to complete their program by the end date on their Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE). If you want to reduce the amount of courses you undertake this Semester, we advise you to speak with Student Services and your Faculty.

Grade Structure

Grades

Tip: We do not mark on a curve. You achieve against yourself (not your classmates).

Course attendance mode

Courses in your program may be available in more than one delivery mode, depending on program and course requirements.

In Person

- You are required to engage in in-person learning or assessment at a UQ campus or other location at some point.
- An in-person course may incorporate some aspects of online delivery
 - (e.g., online lectures, options for online tutorials, online assessment).

External

- External courses are delivered entirely online, and students must participate online for all learning and assessment.

Always remember to check your ECP for information on attendance modes

Electronic Course Profiles (ECP)

Your ECP (Electronic Course Profile) contains information on courses including:

- Course objectives and aims
- Learning resources required (textbooks, specific software etc.)
- Course learning and teaching activities
- Assessment tasks

To view the ECP for a course you're enrolled in

- Log in to mySI-net (student login required) (can be accessed via your my.UQ dashboard)
- Select the 'Enrolments' tile
- Click on the blue information icon beside the course code

Please note: Some ECPs may not be available until the first week of classes.

Accessing your ECP

You can also access your ECP by :

- Searching for your course in the Programs and Courses website
my.uq.edu.au/programs-courses/
- Googling your course code
- If you Google your course Code, make sure you are viewing the right year and semester!

4. Teaching & Learning Activities

4.1 Learning Activities

Recording of Lectures: Please be aware that teaching at UQ may be recorded for the benefit of student learning. If you would prefer not to be captured either by voice or image, please advise your course coordinator before class so accommodations can be made. For further information see PPL 3.20.06 Recording of Teaching at UQ.

Date	Activity	Learning Objectives
14 Feb 23 8:00 - 14 Feb 23 16:00	Introduction to Cognitive Assessment (Workshop): This all day workshop focuses on introducing students to cognitive assessments, including underlying theories and processes, as well as brain-behaviour considerations. Readings/Ref: Crowe, 2010; Groth-Marnat; Maruish, 2004; Hebben, 2009	3, 4
20 Feb 23 8:00 - 20 Feb 23 16:00	Introduction to Intellectual Assessment (Workshop): This all day workshop aims to introduce students to the concept of assessing intelligence. We then focus specifically on the administration, scoring, and interpretation of the WAIS-IV and the WISC-V via practical, hands-on activities. Readings/Ref: Flanagan, 2017; Lichten.E, 2009; Hebben, 2009	1, 3, 4
21 Feb 23 8:00 - 21 Feb 23 16:00	Introduction to Assessing Children (Workshop): This all day workshop will cover common assessment tools and techniques for answering child referral questions (e.g., intellectual assessment, academic achievement, learning disorders). We will also take a look at the WIAT-III with hands-on practice and scoring activity. Readings/Ref: Lichten.E, 2010; Sattler, 2005	3
28 Feb 23 8:00 - 28 Feb 23 11:00	Interpretation, Integration, and Reporting (Seminar): This seminar will develop the ability of the students to interpret, integrate, and report (via both written and verbal communication) a client's test results. We will also briefly explore the important role of emotion and behaviour in relation to the interpretation of assessment results. Readings/Ref: Lichten.E, 2004	2
07 Mar 23 8:00 - 07 Mar 23 11:00	Individual differences (Seminar): In this seminar, we explore assessment from the perspective of working within an ATSI context with guest presenter Steve Munns. Readings/Ref: Dudgeon, 2000	3, 4
14 Mar 23 8:00 - 14 Mar 23 11:00	The Assessment of Memory and Attention (Seminar): This seminar will cover common assessment tools used in the assessment of memory and attention in adults and children. Each of these being a core feature of being able to engage in the world around us. Readings/Ref: Drozdick, 2011; Groth-Marnat	3
30 Mar 23 8:30 - 30 Mar 23 15:00	WAIS-IV/WISC-V Competency Assessment (Practical): The WAIS-IV/WISC-V competency assessment task looks to assess your ability to administer elements of the WAIS-IV or WISC-V in a role play context. Individual time allocations will be made closer to the date. Further details can be found in 'Section 5' of this ECP. Readings/Ref: Flanagan, 2017; Lichten.E, 2009	1

5. Assessment

UQ students: Please access the profile from Learn.UQ or mySI-net to access all course contributor details held in this profile.

5.1 Assessment Summary

This is a summary of the assessment in the course. For detailed information on each assessment, see 5.5 Assessment Detail below.

COVID-19 IMPACTS: UQ will make every effort to teach and assess as outlined in this course profile. However, the ongoing impacts of COVID-19, including changes to Government health restrictions that may be implemented during the Semester, could result in changes to this course, including assessment. We continue to strive to ensure the learning activities for this course remain accessible to students as far as is practicable, so that the learning objectives can be met. For further information and ongoing updates see <https://about.uq.edu.au/coronavirus/students>.

5.2 Course Grading

Example criteria for each of the grades can be found in PPL 3.10.02 Assessment Procedures - section 7 Appendix.

Grade X: No assessable work received.

Grade 1, Low Fail: Absence of evidence of achievement of course learning outcomes:

0-30.99%

Grade 2, Fail: Minimal evidence of achievement of course learning outcomes:

31-43.99%

Grade 3, Marginal Fail: Demonstrated evidence of developing achievement of course learning outcomes:

44-55.99%

Grade 4, Pass: Demonstrated evidence of functional achievement of course learning outcomes:

56-67.99%

Grade 5, Credit: Demonstrated evidence of proficient achievement of course learning outcomes:

68-77.99%

Grade 6, Distinction: Demonstrated evidence of advanced achievement of course learning outcomes:

78-87.99%

Grade 7, High Distinction: Demonstrated evidence of exceptional achievement of course learning outcomes:

88+%

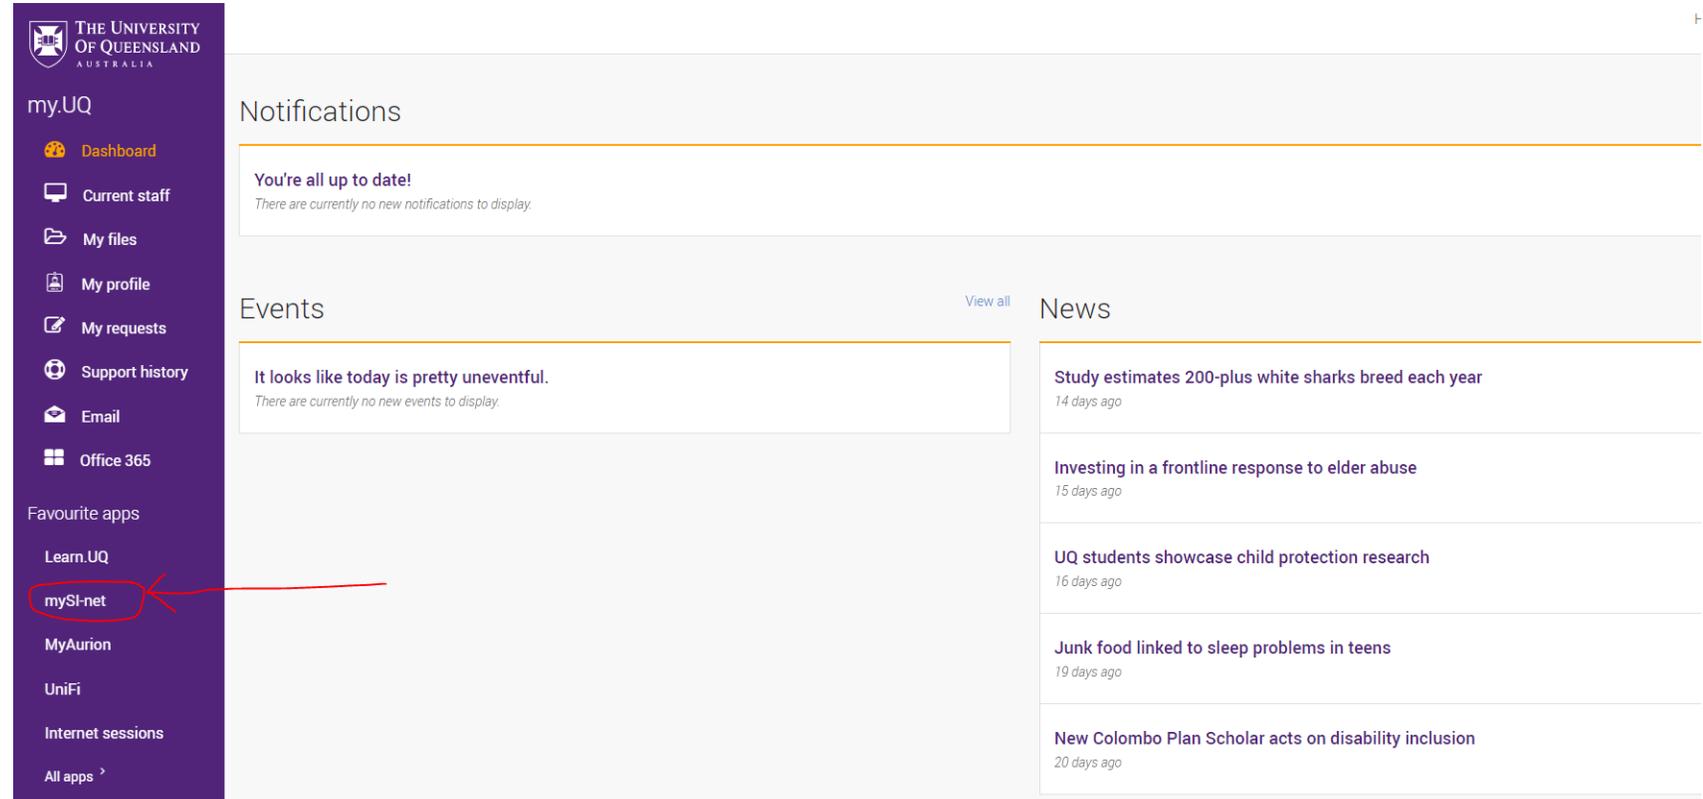

2 Enrolling

- mySI-net
- Enrolling in your courses
- Where to go for course advice & help

Accessing mySI-net

At UQ you use mySI-net to manage your studies.

- You can access mySI-net here: <https://www.sinet.uq.edu.au>
- Or you can follow the link from your my.UQ dashboard

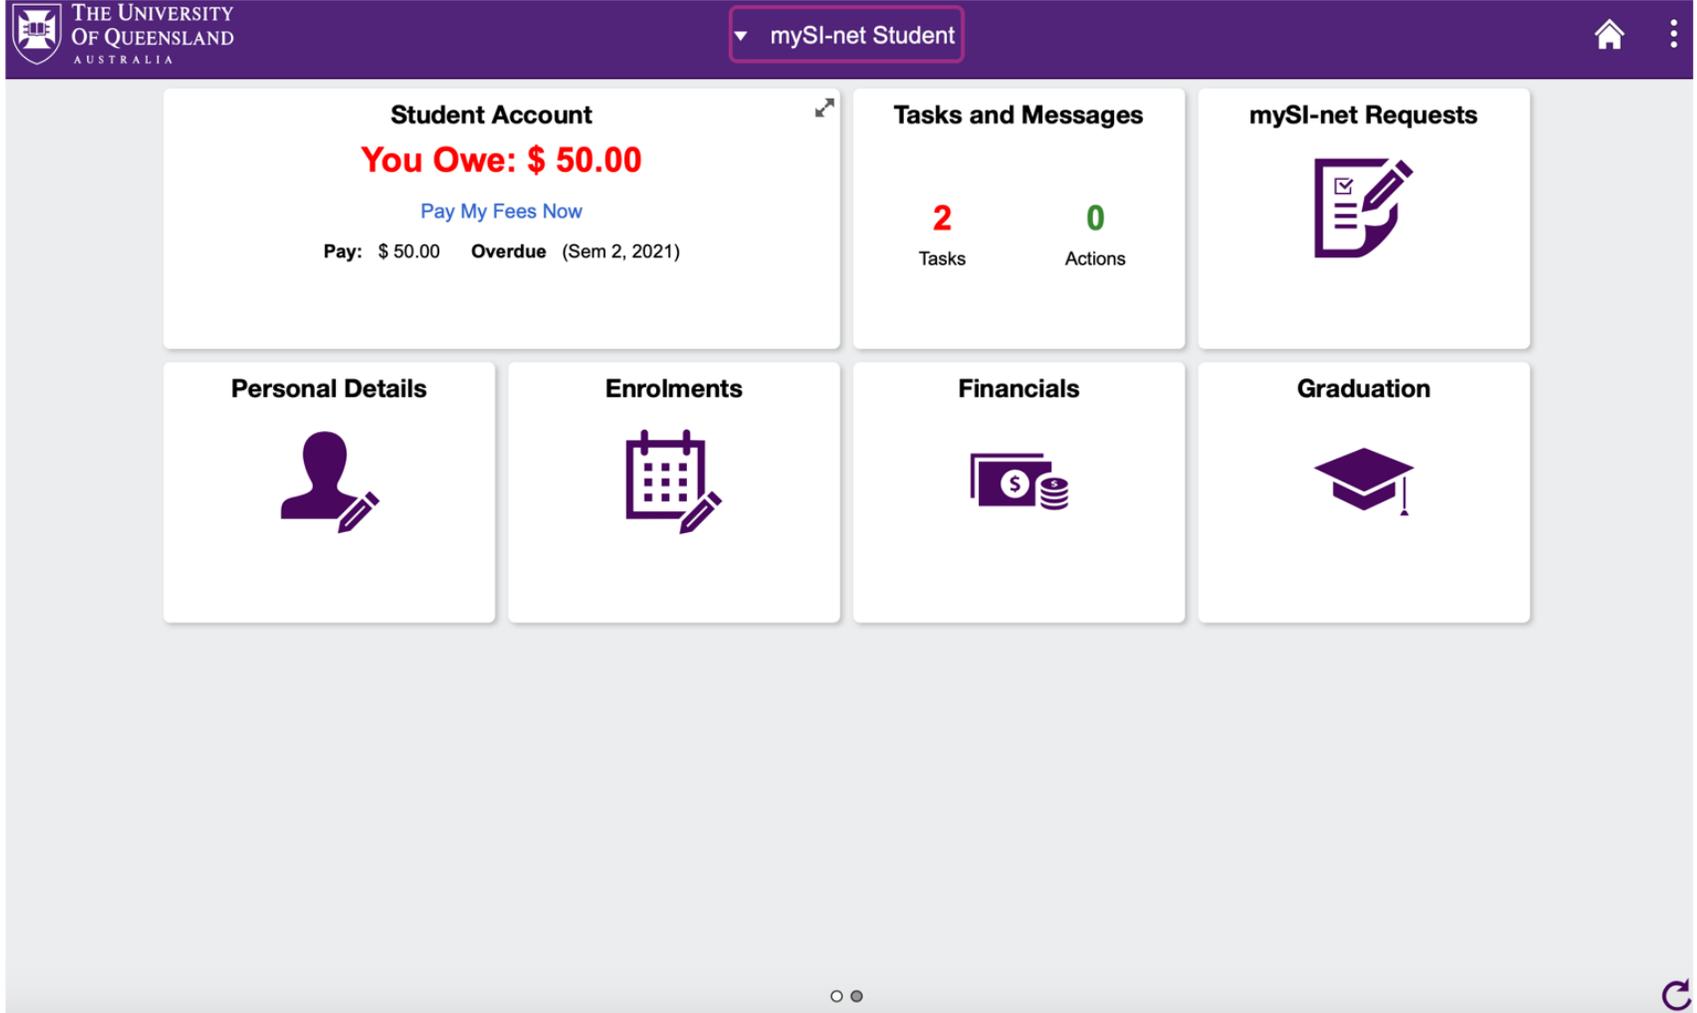

The screenshot displays the my.UQ dashboard interface. On the left is a dark purple sidebar with the University of Queensland logo at the top. Below the logo, the text 'my.UQ' is visible. The sidebar contains several menu items: Dashboard (with a gear icon), Current staff (with a person icon), My files (with a folder icon), My profile (with a person icon), My requests (with a document icon), Support history (with a speech bubble icon), Email (with an envelope icon), and Office 365 (with a grid icon). Under the heading 'Favourite apps', there is a list of links: Learn.UQ, mySI-net (which is circled in red and has a red arrow pointing to it from the right), MyAurion, UniFi, Internet sessions, and All apps (with a right-pointing arrow). The main content area of the dashboard is light grey and features three sections: 'Notifications' with a message 'You're all up to date!', 'Events' with a message 'It looks like today is pretty uneventful.', and 'News' with a list of articles including 'Study estimates 200-plus white sharks breed each year', 'Investing in a frontline response to elder abuse', 'UQ students showcase child protection research', 'Junk food linked to sleep problems in teens', and 'New Colombo Plan Scholar acts on disability inclusion'.

mySI-net

You use mySI-net to:

- Enrol in your courses
- Update your Personal Details
- Pay your fees
- View final grades
- Request a change of program
- Program summary
- Defer exams

The screenshot shows the mySI-net Student dashboard. At the top, there is a purple header with the University of Queensland logo on the left, a dropdown menu labeled "mySI-net Student" in the center, and a home icon on the right. The main content area is a grid of seven white cards with purple icons and text. The top row contains three cards: "Student Account" (showing "You Owe: $ 50.00" and "Pay My Fees Now"), "Tasks and Messages" (showing 2 Tasks and 0 Actions), and "mySI-net Requests" (with a pencil and checklist icon). The bottom row contains four cards: "Personal Details" (with a person icon), "Enrolments" (with a calendar icon), "Financials" (with a money icon), and "Graduation" (with a graduation cap icon). At the bottom right, there is a refresh icon.

03 Timetabling

- Class allocation process
- Important dates
- How do I choose my classes? What does this look like?
- Class preferencing guide
- How do I make changes to my timetable?
- Where to go for timetable advice & help

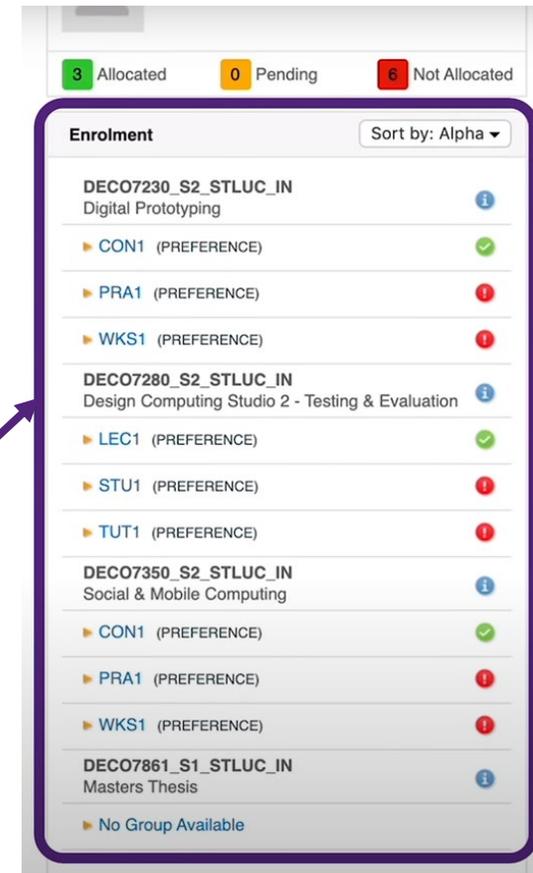

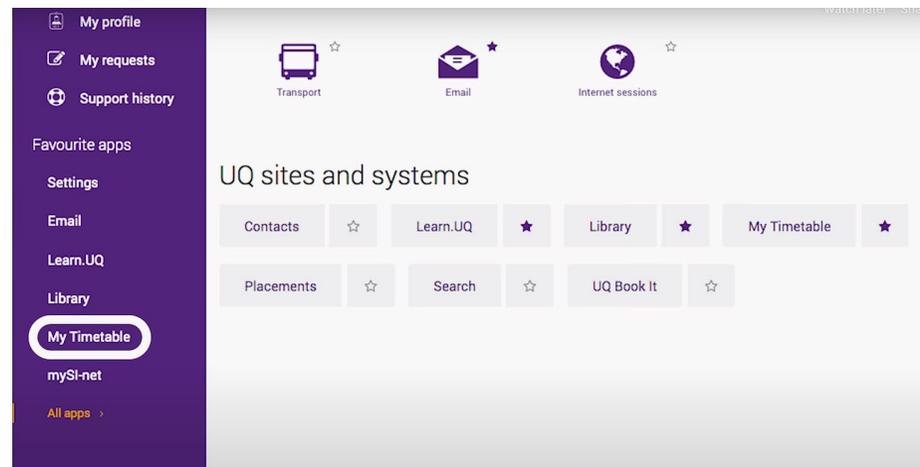

Class allocation process

Action	Date
Student preferences open (12:00 noon)	19 June
Student preferences close (9:00am)	3 July
Adjustment / swap period opens (12:00 noon)	10 July
Adjustment period closes (09:00am)	7 August

Choosing class times

- Now that you have enrolled in your courses, you need to select your preferred class times.
- Your classes will be allocated based on the preferences you select.
- This step is called Class Preferencing
- To select your preferred class times, you'll need to register your preferred times through My Timetable (our class allocation system).
- This can be accessed through your my.UQ Dashboard (student login required)

Class preferencing guide

How to Preference MyTimetable

Making changes to your timetable

Once the system has created your timetable, class adjustment begins (10 July 2023)

During class adjustment you can:

- review your allocated timetable
- swap class times if there's a space available
- add your name to a waitlist to swap
- allocate yourself to classes you missed during the class preferencing stage.

Note: Review your timetable as soon as you can. The earlier you swap or waitlist, the better chance you have of getting the timetable you want!

04 Important Reminders

- Academic Integrity Modules
- English for Academic Communication

Complete the Academic Integrity Modules

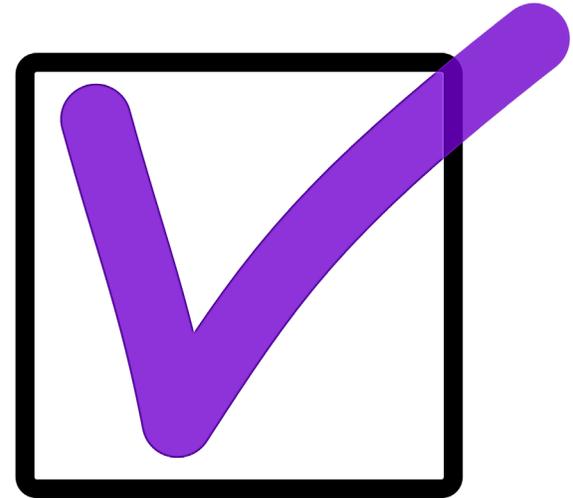

These modules are designed to help you understand your obligations and responsibilities as a UQ student. Academic integrity describes the ethical principles that underpin academia and student life.

Due Dates

You'll need to complete:

Part A by 31 August 2023

Part B by 27 October 2023

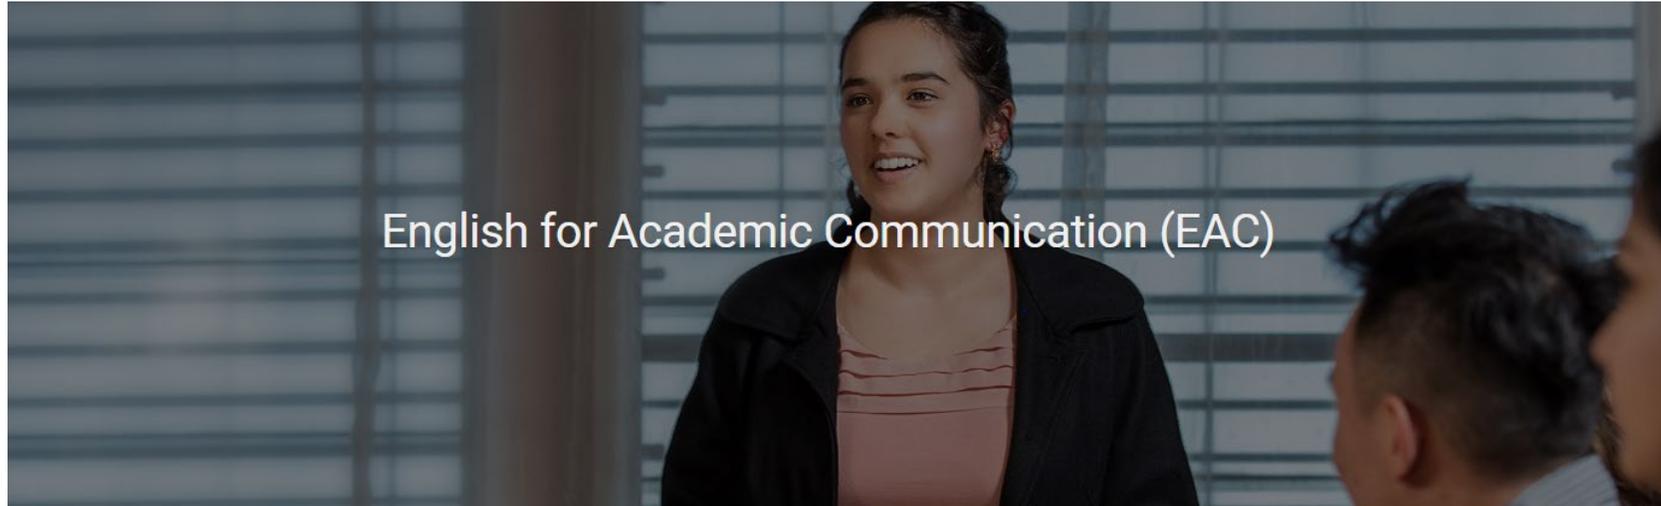

Access the modules

Access the Academic Integrity Modules \(UQ login required\) on the edX (Edge) platform and click Enroll Now to get started. The modules are intended to be completed only once.

Contact the UQ Library AskUs if you need technical help.

English for Academic Communication

Academic English classes for UQ Students

English for Academic Communication (EAC) courses support international students and students with English as an additional language to participate fully and succeed in their UQ course.

EAC courses:

- Are free
- Are interactive workshops with opportunities to practice language and receive feedback
- Help you communicate clearly and effectively in academic contexts
- Help you take part in academic life at UQ
- Help you achieve your learning goals
- Can be one of your five supplementary activities for a UQ Employability Award.

Course details and online registration are posted here around 2 weeks prior to the start of the semester.
