To Note (Advanced Humanities students only):

- You can only complete 24 units (12 courses) at level 1.

Be careful with the number of level 1 program electives and general electives you take.

- General Electives can comprise courses from any other undergraduate program at UQ providing those courses are not restricted or have firm pre-requisite requirements.

Other Advanced Humanities or Bachelor of Arts courses are usually good complements.

- You do not need to declare your major/extended major now.

You can declare or change your major/extended major, through mySI-net.

mySI-net refers to majors/extended majors as 'plans'.

- Progressing into research honours in year 4 is dependent on achieving a minimum GPA of 5.5 across all courses that contribute to the Major or Extended Major for which you will be taking honours.

Program Structure in Humanities/Laws (Honours)

- Interdisciplinary Humanities Core Courses
- Extended major in Western Civilisation (called a 'Plan' in mySI-net)
- Courses for the LLB(Hons)
