

HASS Briefcase Rummage

This event was developed and executed by students of the 2019 Semester 2 HASS Leadership Program

12-3pm Wednesday 16th October
Grassy Knoll

With a sustainable and inclusive project aiming to create a culture of sharing knowledge and resources between staff and students on campus, pre-loved business attire generously donated by UQ staff was redistributed for free to students in need on their journey to employability, helping them become more professional, comfortable, confident and successful.

Partnered with UQ Life, UQ Careers & Employability & the Dress for Success charity.

Contributing HASS Schools: HaPI, PoISIS, Languages and Cultures & Social Science.

60+ attendees

5 53L containers of business attire donated by HASS faculty

50% of attendees were HASS students

82% felt the event broadened their perspective of employability at UQ

80% felt they enjoyed the event & felt more prepared for employability

75% expressed interest in similar events

