A humanities degree makes you more resilient. History gives you perspective. Philosophy allows you to think. The pleasures of literature, art and music make life worth living.

As an Arts student you will develop your own innate sense of curiosity, resilience and entrepreneurial spirit, and graduate ready to tackle an uncertain future in an uncertain world.

Allowing me to learn about different cultures, rituals and practices that I wasn’t aware of before studying anthropology.

Dipanshu

Expanding my view of the future and surrounding myself with like-minded people who are passionate about my favourite subjects. The best thing about Arts is how much it’s shaped and brightened my life.

Holly

Hey : ) I’m thinking about studying a Bachelor of Arts. What do you think Arts actually is…?

James

Making valuable industry connections, which have opened up a number of intriguing pathways that I now have the choice to follow after graduation.
