2. What to enrol in

Where do I start?

If you are in the single BA, keep your options open and explore

Example: Mary wants to major in International Relations and Philosophy, but she is also interested in Music and Criminology. She picks one compulsory introductory course from each major, and two other introductory courses as general electives. All of these are compulsory courses for the different majors. This gives her the chance to explore four majors at once!

POLS1201

2 units

Introduction to International Relations

PHIL1002

2 units

Introduction to Philosophy: What is Philosophy?

CRIM1000

2 units

Introduction to Criminology

MUSC1600

2 units

Musicianship 1

Make sure to take Level 1 courses in your first semester, unless you have credit for prior learning

Where do I start?

If you are in a dual degree, get your foundation right

Example: Xi is doing a Bachelor of Arts / Laws (Honours). In his BA, he wants to do an extended major in Art History and a minor in Sociology. He picks two introductory (Level 1) compulsory courses offered in Semester 1 for Law. Then he picks two introductory courses for his BA extended major and minor. This sets a good foundation for his study in future semesters.

LAWS1700
Foundations of Law

2 units

LAWS1703
Principles of Public Law

2 units

SOCY1070
Inequality, Society and the Self

2 units

ARTT1105

Remember to take Level 1 courses

Several resources are available to inform you of your program requirements. It is important that you are familiar with these requirements so that you complete the program you want in the relevant amount of time. These are:

- Bachelor of Arts program page; and
- Program Planner (www.youtube.com/watch?v=MPEQ0hMaEcY).

We have an interactive planner called the Program Planner. You can find the Program Planner in the my.UQ dashboard under “UQ sites and systems”. Check out the YouTube video to learn more about the Program Planner.

Don't forget the 8 unit rule when choosing your courses in the first semester or first year of your program.
